

We are looking for a new team member for our office in Hamburg, Germany:

Intern in Online Marketing for the English market

- ▶ Commencement: immediate (flexible for the right candidate)
- ▶ Duration: 4-6 months
- ▶ Salary: € 600/ month

SpaDreams is a leading specialist tour operator in health and wellness travel.

Our range covers a variety of holidays: from spa & wellness to detox & slimming to health, Ayurveda & yoga packages. We cooperate with over 800 carefully selected hotel partners from 50 countries. We market our holidays at www.fitreisen.de. Internationally we offer our services in 8 languages under brands SpaDreams and Spa Oteli. As a global player in the travel industry we proudly reach customers from all over the world.

How you will support our team

You will work in close cooperation with the English Market Manager to develop further online expansion of www.spadreams.com through a variety of online marketing activities. The tasks include content management, search engine optimisation and acquisition campaigns to gain new customers and business partners. You will also take the responsibility for creation and management of the content on our website.

What we offer

As a member of our friendly, fun, international and multicultural team, from the first day you will be given a lot of responsibility and exciting tasks. Our trust in team members and flat organisational structure enable quick communication and introduction of your new ideas and improvements. We like having fun together so you will surely have an opportunity to get to know your colleagues at company events.

The perfect-profile candidate for us

We are looking for a team player who likes new challenges, is eager to implement own ideas and to take the responsibility for given tasks. You should be happy to work in an international environment and to take a variety of diverse tasks as well as work under minimal supervision. We need a "digital native", enthusiastic about working with modern, online media.

Ideally you fulfil the following requirements:

- ▶ You are an English native speaker
- ▶ You are familiar with the English online world (educational/professional experience in an English-speaking country) and take pleasure in writing
- ▶ You are proficient with MS Office programmes
- ▶ You have an excellent overall digital understanding and enjoy working with digital media
- ▶ You are able to communicate in German in a confident manner
- ▶ You are a highly motivated, communicative team player

How to apply

Are you interested? If you would like to gain a valuable professional experience and actively support us in the further expansion of the brand SpaDreams UK, please send your CV and cover letter to our HR Manager Cornelia Stollenwerk as soon as possible, via career@spadreams.com. More information can be found on the web at www.spadreams.com/career

We are looking forward to hearing from you!
